EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Claims

In claim 22: line 4, before "forming", "-" has been deleted, since this was clearly intended.

Fully amended text is given below:

22. (Currently Amended) The method of claim 21 wherein:
wire-bonding the radiation responsive dies to the support member comprises forming a plurality of wire-bonds; and [[-]]forming the barrier comprises encapsulating at least a portion of the wire-bonds.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention contains 45 claims with 6 independent claims, namely claims 1, 14, 21, 27, 33 and 40. Among the 6 independent claims, claims 1, 14 and 21 are broader than independent claims 27, 33 and 40. Therefore, a comparison analysis is conducted only between claims 1, 14 and 21 and two best references – Webster and Glenn'927.

Art Unit: ***

Vis-à-vis claims 1, 14 and 21 (they are all method claims), Glenn'927 does not teach or fairly suggest a plurality of singulated responsive dies to be arranged on or coupled to a common support member. In Glenn'927, a die is mounted on a support member. Vis-à-vis the same claims, Webster fails to teach or fairly suggest that the barrier (the singulated street 812) is formed on the support member (102). The barrier is instead formed in the support member. And the plurality of radiation transmissive windows are not attached to the barrier, but to the traces and to the support member. In light of this difference, it is concluded that the devices of the patents in consideration and that of the present invention contain divergent subject matters.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
